LET'S TALK

Starter Questions: Do you ever need help? Talk about some ways you need help each day specifically as it relates to living the Christian life. Admit it! Every person needs help—even adults!

Good News: God sent us a special Helper who is 100% divine, kind and gentle, patient and loving. He is the Holy Spirit. The Bible teaches that the Holy Spirit is on equal level with the Father and the Son as the third person of the Trinity. The meaning of the term "Holy Spirit" is One of the same kind that comes alongside to aid or help.

The Holy Spirit presently works to minister to the lost world, the Church and every believer individually.

- ⇒ To the lost world He brings conviction of sin and works to convince the lost of their need for Jesus (John 16:8-11)
- ⇒ To the Church He distributes spiritual gifts (1 Cor. 12:1-11) and empowers the fellowship for witnessing and ministry (Acts 1:8).
- ⇒ To the individual believer He illuminates the mind so that one can understand spiritual wisdom (1 Cor. 2:10-15), leads us into all truth (John 14:17), and empowers for service.

Ask: How do you need the Holy Spirit to help you today? Close with a time of prayer, asking the Holy Spirit to help you in the specific areas discussed.
