John 17:26 "And I have declared to them Your name, and will declare it..."

Charles Graddison Finney was gloriously converted to Christ October 10, 1821. Following his conversion, Finney was used by God to fan the flames of revival throughout the first half of the 1800s during the Second Great Awakening. Finney first began preaching in New York and ultimately had great success preaching in large urban areas such as New York, Philadelphia and Boston. His most noted revival meeting was held in 1830-31 in Rochester, New York. Riding upon the wave of the Second Great Awakening, the campaign lasted six months with one tenth of the city's population being converted. Charles Finney was faithful to make Jesus known to as many people as possible. His methodologies and commitment to prayer have had a lasting influence upon the church. In John 17:26, Jesus prays toward making the Father known. He, too, was always about that task. Are we about the task of making Jesus known to the nations?

Prayer for the Lord to:

- Give you a greater desire and burden to see people saved
- Send witnesses into His harvest fields in America
