John 11:25
"I am the resurrection and the life..."

As Reuben A. Torrey knelt by his bed the night he contemplated taking his life, he was greatly confused about life, faith and God's purposes. He had become enamored with enlightenment thinking and had drifted into skepticism. That same night miles away, Torrey's mother also knelt beside her bed. She was praying for her son, that God would take his life and use it for His Kingdom purposes. And that's exactly what happened. Instead of taking his life that night, Torrey surrendered his life to Jesus Christ. Thanks to a praying mother, Torrey choose life instead of darkness. The result of a revived and awakened church is always the conversion of lost people. Has God laid someone on your heart who needs to choose life over darkness? Why not pray for them as Torrey's mother prayed, that faith would come and new life would be found in Christ? That is what awakening is all about.

- Pray for:
- One specific lost person to be delivered from Satan's kingdom
 - The Lord to forgive your sin of prayerlessness toward lostness
